

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

ADDENDUM TO:

HAER NY-6

ERIE CANAL (ENLARGED), SCHOHARIE CREEK AQUEDUCT

Spanning Schoharie Creek

Fort Hunter

Montgomery County

New York

Photographs NY-6-1 through NY-6-30 were transmitted to the Library of Congress ca. 1970.

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Jet Lowe, photographer, November 2010

- |         |   |
|---------|---|
| NY-6-31 | Schoharie Aqueduct, view looking northeast showing western (downstream) face of arches carrying the towpath.  |
| NY-6-32 | View looking northwest toward eastern (upstream) face of towpath arches. One of the nine piers that formerly carried the wooden canal trunk visible at far right. |
| NY-6-33 | Southeast abutment, view looking northwest toward one of the piers that formerly carried the canal trunk.   |
| NY-6-34 | Towpath and trunk support pier, looking east from southwest end of aqueduct. View approximates similar image (HAER No. NY-6-27) taken in 1969 by Jack E. Boucher. |